Global Infrastructure Partners Announces a Senior Appointment

LONDON, UK, August 25, 2016 -- Global Infrastructure Partners (GIP), the independent $33 billion infrastructure investment firm, today announced that Philip Iley, former Head of the Credit Suisse EMEA Transport & Logistics practice in London, has joined GIP as a Principal.

Mr. Iley brings over 20 years of experience in commercial aviation, infrastructure, government advisory and privatization and has worked in both Australia and, more recently, the United Kingdom. In the UK, he was a Managing Director and Group Head at Credit Suisse where he led a team of investment banking professionals focused on transport and logistics.

Adebayo Ogunlesi, Chairman and Managing Partner of GIP, said "Philip Iley brings a broad infrastructure investment experience base to GIP that will complement our proven Transport sector capabilities. He will be an important addition to our London-based team."

About Global Infrastructure Partners

Global Infrastructure Partners ("GIP") is an independent infrastructure fund that invests in infrastructure assets and businesses in both OECD and select emerging market countries. GIP targets investments in single assets and portfolios of assets and companies in power and utilities, natural resources infrastructure, air transport infrastructure, seaports, freight railroad, water distribution and treatment and waste management. GIP has offices in New York and London, with an affiliate in Sydney and portfolio company operations headquarters in Stamford, Connecticut.
